proved in principle by the Government, is based on the Feasibility Report prepared by Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA). As per the current estimate, the modernisation would involve an expenditure of about Rs. 2930 crores. The Japanese EXIM Bank has agreed to give an export credit of approximately Rs. 900 crores to cover the cost of equipment and services from Japan. After modernisation, the rated capacity of the Plant will increase from 1 million tonnes per annum to 2.15 million tonnes per annum of crude steel. Here too, Open Hearth Furnace will get replaced by BOF. The entire modernisation scheme will be implemented within a period of six years from the date of Government's approval to the project.

Bokaro Steel Plant

The proposed modernisation of Bokaro Steel Plant, which is to be carried out with Soviet assistance, will lead to an increase in the yield of additional 0.87 million tonnes of Saleable Steel. The capital investment is estimated at about Rs. 1100 crores. The salient features of the modernisation would be updating of the operating practices and rationalisation of lay out in the Convertor Shop, incorporation of new technologies for casting of liquid steel into slabs and modernisation of Hot Strip Mill. The implementation period of the modernisation scheme would be around 5-1/2 years from the date of investment decision.
